- (III) issuing shares under employee stock ownership scheme or share incentive scheme;
- (IV) purchasing its shares from Shareholders who have voted against the resolutions on the merger or division of the Company at a shareholders' general meeting upon their request;
- (V) use of shares for converting the convertible bonds issued by the Company into shares;
- (VI) where it is necessary for the Company to maintain its value and protect the interests of the shareholders.

Article 25 The Company may repurchase its own shares in one of the following ways:

- (I) open centralized trading;
- (II) other ways recognized by laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC and other stock exchanges of the place where the Company's shares are listed, in compliance with the provisions of applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

If the share repurchase is made under the circumstances set out in (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association, it shall be conducted by way of open centralized trading.

Article 26 A resolution at the shareholders' general meeting is required when the Company repurchases its own shares under the circumstances set out in (I) and (II) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association. When the Company repurchases its own shares under the circumstances set out in (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association, a board resolution shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the directors attending the board meeting, provided that it complies with the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed. After the share repurchase, the Company shall adhere to the information disclosure obligations as stipulated in the Securities Law, the rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the provisions of other securities regulatory rules.

After the Company repurchases its own shares in accordance with Article 24, in case of the circumstance set out in (I), the shares shall be cancelled within 10 days from the date of repurchase; in case of the circumstances set out in (II) and (IV), the shares shall be transferred or cancelled within 6 months thereafter; and in case of the circumstances set out in (III), (V) and (VI), the shares held by the Company in aggregate shall not exceed 10% of the total issued shares of the Company, and shall be transferred or cancelled within 3 years.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 27 Shares of the Company may be transferred pursuant to laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

All H Shares shall be transferred by way of written transfer instrument in standard form, or any other format acceptable to the Board of Directors (including the standard transfer format or form of transfer as prescribed by the SEHK from time to time. The instruments of transfer may only be signed by hand or (where the transferor or transferee is a corporation) by an effective company seal. If the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined by the relevant provisions that come into effect from time to time according to the laws of Hong Kong or its agent, the instruments of transfer may be signed by hand or in a machine-printed format. All instruments of transfer shall be kept at the legal address of the Company or such places as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time.

Article 28 The Company shall not accept its own shares as the subject of pledge.

Article 29 Shares of the Company held by promoters shall not be transferred within 1 year from the date of establishment of the Company. Shares issued by the Company prior to the public offering shall not be transferred within 1 year from the date on which the shares of the Company are listed and traded on the Stock Exchanges. The directors, supervisors and senior management members of the Company shall notify the Company of their holdings of shares in the Company and the changes therein, and the shares transferred by them during each year of their term of office shall not exceed 25% of their total holdings of shares in the Company. The shares in the Company held by them shall not be transferred within 1 year from the date on which the Company's shares are listed for trading. The shares in the Company held by them shall not be transferred within half a year after they have terminated their employment with the Company. Where the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed provide otherwise in respect of the restrictions on the transfer of shares of the Company, such rules shall prevail.

Article 30 Any gains from sale of Company's shares or other securities with an equity nature by the directors, supervisors and senior management members or shareholders holding more than 5% of the Company's shares within 6 months after their purchase of the same, and any gains from the purchase of the shares or other securities with an equity nature by any of the aforesaid parties within 6 months after sale of the same shall be owned by the Company, and the Board of Directors shall be responsible for recovering such gains from the abovementioned parties. However, securities companies holding 5% or more of the shares after purchasing the remaining shares upon public offering due to underwriting, and other circumstances stipulated by the CSRC are exempt from such requirement. If the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed provide otherwise, such rules shall prevail.

The shares or other securities with an equity nature held by directors, supervisors, senior management members and natural person shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph include the shares or other securities with an equity nature held by their spouses, parents and children and held under accounts of any other persons.

If the Board of Directors fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph in this Article, the shareholders shall have the right to request the Board of Directors to do so within 30 days. If the Board of Directors fails to do so within the aforesaid period, the shareholders shall have the right to institute a legal proceeding directly with the People's Court in their own names for the benefit of the Company, whereas in the case of holders of H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Dispute chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

If the Board of Directors fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph in this Article, the directors liable shall assume joint liabilities pursuant to the laws.

Chapter 4 Shareholders and Shareholders' General Meetings

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 31 The Company shall establish a register of shareholders based on the certificates provided by the securities registration authority and the register of shareholders is sufficient evidence to prove that the shareholders hold the shares of the Company.

The original copy of the register of holders of H Shares listed in Hong Kong is kept in Hong Kong and is available for inspection by shareholders, but the Company may suspend the registration of shareholders in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed. In the event that any shareholder whose name is recorded in or any person who requests to have its name entered in the register of holders of H Shares loses his/her share certificate(s), he/she may apply to the Company for replacement of new share certificate(s) in respect thereof. Where a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares loses his/her share certificate(s) and applies for replacement, such application shall be dealt with in accordance with the laws, rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations of the place where the original copy of the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares is maintained.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class of shares they hold. Shareholders holding shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

Article 32 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, undergoes liquidation or engages in other activities that require the verification of shareholders' identities, the Board of Directors or the convener of the shareholders' general meeting shall determine the shareholding registration date. Shareholders whose names appear on the register of shareholders on the shareholding registration date shall be the shareholders enjoying the relevant rights.

Article 33 Shareholders of the Company enjoy the following rights:

(I) to receive dividends and other forms of interest distributions in proportion to their shareholdings;

(II) to request, convene, hold and attend or appoint proxies to attend shareholders' general meetings and exercise their corresponding voting rights according to laws;

(III) to supervise, provide recommendations on or make inquiries about the operations of the Company;

(IV) to transfer, donate or pledge their shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;

(V) to inspect the Articles of Association, register of shareholders, counterfoils of the bonds of the Company, minutes of shareholders' general meetings, resolutions of the board meetings, resolutions of the meetings of Board of Supervisors, financial and accounting reports;

(VI) to participate in the distribution of the remaining properties of the Company in proportion to their shareholdings in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company;

(VII) to request the Company to acquire their shares for the shareholders who voted against any resolution adopted at the shareholders' general meeting concerning the merger or division of the Company;

(VIII) to enjoy other rights stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Articles of Association or securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 34 Where shareholders request for inspection of the relevant information as mentioned in the preceding Article or request any materials, they shall provide the Company with written documents evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company held by them. Upon verification of the shareholders' identities, the Company shall provide information as requested by such shareholders.

Article 35 In the event that any resolution of the shareholders' general meetings or resolution of the Board of Directors violates laws or administrative regulations, the shareholders shall be entitled to request the People's Court to invalidate the said resolution, whereas in the case of holders of H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Disputes chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

In the event that the convening procedure or voting method of the shareholders' general meeting or the board meeting violates any of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the content of any resolution violates the Articles of Association, the shareholders shall be entitled to request the People's Court to revoke the resolution within 60 days upon the date on which the resolution was adopted, whereas in the case of holders of H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Disputes chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

Article 36 Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by directors and senior management members in the course of performing their duties, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of shares of the Company for over 180 consecutive days shall have the right to request the Board of Supervisors in writing to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court; where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by the Board of Supervisors in the course of performing duties, the aforesaid shareholders shall have the right to request the Board of Directors in writing to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court, whereas in the case of holders H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Disputes chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

In the event that the Board of Supervisors or the Board of Directors refuses to initiate legal proceedings upon receipt of the aforesaid shareholders' written request, or fails to initiate legal proceedings within 30 days upon receipt thereof, or in case of emergency or in the event that the failure to immediately initiate legal proceedings will incur irrecoverable damage to the interests of the Company, the shareholders mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall have rights to, in their own names, directly initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court for the interests of the Company, whereas in the case of holders of H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Disputes chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

In the event that any other person infringes upon the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and causes losses thereto, the shareholders mentioned in the first paragraph of this Article may initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court according to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, whereas in the case of holders of H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Disputes chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

Article 37 In the event of a director or a senior management member violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, which causes damage to the interests of shareholders, the shareholders may initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court, whereas in the case of holders of H Shares, the applicable rules under the Settlement of Disputes chapter of the Articles of Association shall be applied.

Article 38 Shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

(I) to abide by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;

(II) to pay capital contribution according to the number of shares subscribed for and the method of subscription;

(III) not to withdraw the shares unless required by the laws and administrative regulations;

(IV) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to jeopardize the interests of the Company or other shareholders, and not to abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal entity and the limited liability of shareholders to jeopardize the interests of any creditors of the Company;

(V) to keep business secrets of the Company confidential;

(VI) other obligations imposed by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where any shareholder of the Company abuses the shareholders' rights and incur losses to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for the damages according to laws. Where shareholders of the Company abuse the Company's status as an independent legal entity and the limited liability of shareholders for the purposes of evading debts, thereby materially impairing the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts owed by the Company.

Article 39 Where any shareholder holding more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company pledges the shares held by him/her, the shareholder shall submit a written report to the Company on the date of such event.

Article 40 Neither the controlling shareholder nor the de facto controller of the Company may prejudice the interests of the Company by taking advantage of his/her related relationship. Anyone who violates this Article and causes any loss to the Company shall be liable for compensation.

The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall act in good faith towards the Company and other shareholders of the Company. The controlling shareholder shall exercise its rights as a capital contributor in strict compliance with the laws. The controlling shareholders shall not jeopardize the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and other shareholders of the Company by means of profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, fund appropriation, loan guarantee, etc., and shall not jeopardize the interests of the Company and other shareholders of the Company by exploiting their controlling positions.

Section 2 General Provisions for the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 41 The shareholders' general meeting is the power of authority of the Company, which shall exercise the following functions and powers in accordance with the law:

In accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors shall issue written feedback on whether or not to convene the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days from the receipt of the proposal.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the meeting within 5 days after the Board of Directors passes the relevant resolution, and changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the Board of Supervisors.

Where the Board of Directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or fails to issue feedback within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be unable or fail to perform the duty of convening the shareholders' general meeting, and the Board of Supervisors may convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

Article 49 Shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the shares of the Company shall have the right to request the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall submit such request in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, provide written feedback on whether or not to convene the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the request.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the meeting within 5 days after the board passes the resolution, and changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders.

Where the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or fails to give feedback within 10 days after receiving the request, shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose to the Board of Supervisors to hold an extraordinary general meeting, and shall make a written request to the Board of Supervisors.

Where the Board of Supervisors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the meeting within 5 days of receiving the request, and any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders.

Where the Board of Supervisors fails to issue a notice of the meeting within the prescribed time limit, it shall be deemed that the Board of Supervisors has not convened and presided over the meeting, and shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting on their own initiatives.

Article 50 Where the Board of Supervisors or shareholders decide to convene a shareholders' general meeting on their own initiatives, they shall notify the Board of Directors in writing and file the records with the SZSE at the same time.

Prior to the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, the shareholding of the convening shareholders shall not be less than 10%.

The Board of Supervisors or the convening shareholders shall submit the relevant supporting materials to the SZSE when issuing the notice of the shareholders' general meeting and the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 51 For the shareholders' general meetings convened by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders on their own initiatives, the Board of Directors and the secretary to the Board of Directors shall cooperate with the Board of Supervisors or the shareholders. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders as at the shareholding registration date.

Article 52 The expenses necessary for the shareholders' general meeting convened by the Board of Supervisors or the shareholders on their own initiatives shall be borne by the Company.

Section 4 Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 53 The contents of the proposals shall fall within the terms of reference of the shareholders' general meeting, have clear subjects and specific matters to be resolved, and comply with the relevant provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 54 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 3% of the shares of the Company shall have the right to put forward proposals to the Company.

Shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 3% of the shares of the Company may submit a provisional proposal in writing to the convener 10 days prior to the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting within 2 days after receiving the proposal and announce the contents of the provisional proposal. Where the shareholders' general meeting is postponed in accordance with the requirements of the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed due to the issuance of a supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting, the convening of the shareholders' general meeting shall be postponed in accordance with the provisions of the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Except as provided in the preceding paragraph, the convener shall not amend the proposals set out in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or add new proposals after issuing the notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

Proposals not set out in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or not in compliance with Article 53 shall not be voted on or resolved at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 55 The convener shall notify all shareholders by way of announcement 21 days prior to the convening of the annual general meeting, and each shareholder shall be notified by way of announcement 15 days prior to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting. The date of the meeting shall not be included in the calculation of the commencement period.

Article 56 The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall include the following:

(I) the time, venue and duration of the meeting;

(II) matters and proposals submitted to the meeting for consideration;

(III) the notice shall state clearly that all shareholders are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting or appoint proxies in writing to attend and vote at such meeting on their behalf and that such proxies need not be a shareholder of the Company;

(IV) the shareholding registration date for the shareholders who are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting;

(V) the names and telephone numbers of the contact person for the meeting affairs;

(VI) voting time of and procedures via online or other methods.

The notice and supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully and completely disclose all the specific contents of all proposals. Where the opinions of an independent non-executive director are required on matters to be discussed, the opinions and reasons thereof shall be disclosed at the same time when the notice of shareholders' general meeting and the supplemental notice are issued.

Article 57 Where the shareholders' general meeting proposes to discuss the election of directors and supervisors, the notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates for directors and supervisors, which shall at least include the following:

(I) personal particulars such as educational background, work experience and part-time job;

(II) whether there is any related relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholders and de facto controller;

(III) disclosure of the number of shares held in the Company;

(IV) whether they have been penalized by the CSRC and other relevant authorities or reprimanded by SZSE.

Other than the directors and supervisors elected through the cumulative voting system, each candidate for director or supervisor shall be proposed in a separate proposal.

Article 58 After issuance of the notice for shareholders' general meeting, the shareholders' general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons and the proposals specified in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In case of postponement or cancellation, the convener shall notify all shareholders and make an announcement stating the reasons at least 2 working days before the original meeting date. If there are special provisions under the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed regarding the procedures for postponing or canceling shareholders' general meetings, the provisions shall prevail provided that they do not violate the domestic regulatory requirements.

Section 5 Conducting the Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 59 The Board of Directors and other conveners of the Company shall take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of the shareholders' general meeting. Measures shall be taken to stop acts that interfere with the shareholders' general meeting, provoke troubles and infringe the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders, and report to relevant authorities for investigation and penalty in a timely manner.

Article 60 All shareholders in the register of shareholders as at the shareholding registration date or their proxies are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting, and exercise voting rights in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend a shareholders' general meeting in person, or may appoint other persons as his/her proxies to attend and vote on his/her behalf.

Article 61 Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their personal identity cards or other valid certificates or documents or proof of shareholding. Proxies attending the meeting shall present their valid personal identity cards and the proxy forms from the shareholders.

Where a shareholder is a legal entity, its legal representative or proxies authorized by the legal representative shall attend the meeting. Legal representatives attending the meeting shall present their personal identity cards and valid documents that can prove their identities as legal representatives. Proxies authorized to attend the meeting shall present their personal identity cards and the proxy forms in writing provided by the legal representative of the legal entity shareholder in accordance with the law, except for shareholder who is a recognized clearing house as defined in the relevant ordinances in force from time to time under the laws of Hong Kong or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed (the "Recognized Clearing House").

If the shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House, the Recognized Clearing House may authorize one or more persons it deems fit to act as its representative at any shareholders' general meeting or any meeting of creditors; however, if more than one person is so authorized, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorized. A person so authorized may act on behalf of the Recognized Clearing House (or its nominees) (no shareholding voucher, notarized authorization and/or further evidence to the duly authorization is required) as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 62 The proxy form provided by a shareholder to appoint another person to attend a shareholders' general meeting shall contain the following particulars:

(I) name of the proxy;

(II) indication of whether voting power is granted;

(III) instruction of voting for, against or abstain for each resolution proposed at any shareholders' general meeting;

(IV) date of signing the proxy form and the effective period for such appointment;

(V) signature (or seal) of the appointing shareholder. If the appointing shareholder is a legal entity, the seal of the legal entity shall be affixed.

Article 63 The proxy form shall state whether the proxy may vote as he/she thinks fit in the absence of instructions from the shareholder. If no such instruction is given, it is deemed that the proxy of the shareholder may vote as he/she thinks fit.

Article 64 If the proxy form for appointing a voting proxy is signed by another person authorized by the appointing shareholder, the authorization letter or other authorization document shall be notarized. The notarized authorization letter or other authorization document, together with the proxy form, shall be kept at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

If the appointing shareholder is a legal entity, its legal representative or the person authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors or other decision-making body shall attend the shareholders' general meeting of the Company as the representative of such legal entity shareholder.

Article 65 A register for attendees at the meeting shall be compiled by the Company, which shall contain, among others, the name of the attendee (or the name of the organization), identity card number, residential address, the number of shares with voting rights held or represented by the attendee and the name of the person (or the name of the organization) who attends the meeting by proxy.

Article 66 The convener and the lawyers engaged by the Company shall verify the legitimacy of the eligibility of the shareholders based on the register of shareholders provided by the securities registration and clearing institution, and shall register the names of the shareholders as well as the number of shares with voting rights that are held by them. The registration for the meeting shall be completed before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the on-site meeting and the total number of shares with voting rights that they represent.

Article 67 When a shareholders' general meeting is convened, all the directors, supervisors and the secretary to the Board of Directors shall attend the meeting, and the general manager and other senior management members shall be present at such meeting. Subject to the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the above-mentioned persons may attend or present at the meeting via internet, video, telephone or other means with equivalent effect.

Article 68 A shareholders' general meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the Board of Directors. If the chairman is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, a director jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall preside over the meeting.

The chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall preside over the shareholders' general meeting that is convened by the Board of Supervisors. If the chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, a supervisor jointly elected by more than half of the supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the shareholders shall be presided over by a representative elected by the conveners.

Where the chairman of the shareholders' general meeting violates the rules of procedure when holding the meeting and as a result, the shareholders' general meeting is unable to continue, subject to the consent of the shareholders with more than half of voting rights of all the shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting, a person may be nominated in the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairman of the meeting and such meeting may continue.

Article 69 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedure for the shareholders' general meeting which shall specify in detail the convening and voting procedures of a shareholders' general meeting, including notification, registration, consideration of proposals, voting, counting of votes, announcement of voting results, formation of resolutions, meeting minutes and their signing, announcements and other contents, and the principles of authorization to the Board of Directors at the shareholders' general meeting. The authorization shall be clear and specific. The rules of procedure for the shareholders' general meeting shall be prepared by the Board of Directors and approved by the shareholders' general meeting, and shall be appended to the Articles of Association.

Article 70 At the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall report to the shareholders' general meeting their works done in the past year. Each independent non-executive director shall also present a work report.

Article 71 Directors, supervisors and senior management members shall provide explanations in relation to the inquiries and recommendations from the shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 72 The chairman of the meeting shall, prior to voting, declare the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting as well as the total number of their voting shares, which shall conform to the meeting's registration.

Article 73 Minutes of the shareholders' general meetings shall be recorded by the secretary to the Board of Directors, which shall include the following information:

(I) time, venue and agenda of the meeting and name of the convener;

(II) the name of the chairman of the meeting and the names of the directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members attending or present at the meeting;

(III) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares held by them, and its proportion in the total number of shares of the Company;

(IV) the consideration process, summaries of speeches and voting result for each proposal;

(V) the shareholders' questions, opinions or recommendations and the corresponding answers or explanations;

(VI) names of the lawyer, vote counters and scrutinizer;

(VII) other contents to be recorded in the minutes as specified in the Articles of Association.

Article 74 The convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. Directors, supervisors, secretary to the Board of Directors, conveners or their representatives and the chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes of the meeting shall be kept together with the attendance record of the attending shareholders, letters of authorization of proxies, valid information of online voting and voting by other means, for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 75 The convener shall ensure that the shareholders' general meeting is conducted continuously until final resolutions are made. In the event that the shareholders' general meeting is adjourned or resolutions failed to be reached due to an event of force majeure or other special reasons, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the meeting as soon as possible or terminate that meeting, and an announcement shall be timely made accordingly. At the same time, the convener shall report to the CSRC branch at the location of the Company and the SZSE.

Section 6 Voting at and Resolutions of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 76 Resolutions at the shareholders' general meeting are classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution put forward at a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including their proxies) attending the shareholders' general meeting.

Special resolutions put forward at a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of voting rights held by the shareholders (including their proxies) attending the meeting.

Article 77 The following matters shall be approved by ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) work reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (II) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the Board of Directors;
- (III) appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors who are not employee representative, their remunerations and the method of payment thereof;
- (IV) annual budgets and final accounts report of the Company;
- (V) annual report of the Company;
- (VI) matters other than those prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association that shall be approved by special resolutions.

Article 78 The following matters shall be approved by special resolutions at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company or change of corporate form of the Company;
- (III) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (IV) purchase or sale of material assets or guarantees by the Company in excess of 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets within a period of 1 year;

(V) share incentive schemes;

(VI) adjustment of profit distribution policy;

(VII) other matters prescribed by the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association, and those matters determined by ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting to have a material impact on the Company and required to be approved by special resolutions.

Article 79 Shareholders (including proxies) shall exercise their voting rights based on the number of the shares with voting rights they represent, each share shall carry one vote. On a poll, shareholders (including proxies) with two or more votes need not use all their voting rights in the same way.

When the shareholders' general meeting considers material matters affecting the interests of small and medium-sized investors, votes of small and medium-sized investors shall be counted separately. The separate voting results shall be disclosed publicly in a timely manner.

The Company's own shares held by the Company do not carry voting rights and such shares shall not count towards the total number of shares with voting rights present at shareholders' general meetings.

Where any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or is restricted to voting only for (or only against) any resolution in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and the SEHK Listing Rules, any vote cast by a shareholder (or his proxy) in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted towards the total number of shares with voting rights.

If a shareholder's purchase of shares with voting rights of the Company violates the provisions of Article 63(1) and (2) of the Securities Law, the voting rights of such shares in excess of the prescribed proportion shall not be exercised and shall not be counted towards the total number of shares with voting rights present at the shareholders' general meeting within 36 months after the purchase.

The Board of Directors, independent non-executive directors and shareholders holding more than 1% of the shares with voting rights or investor protection agencies established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the regulations of the CSRC may solicit shareholders' voting rights. The solicitation of shareholders' voting rights shall provide full disclosure of information such as specific voting intentions to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being solicited. The solicitation of shareholders' voting rights by way of compensation or disguised compensation is prohibited. Except for statutory conditions, the Company shall not impose minimum shareholding restrictions on the solicitation of voting rights.

Article 80 When related transactions are considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the related shareholders shall abstain from voting, and the voting shares represented by them shall not be included in the total number of valid votes. The announcement on the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose the details of voting by non-related shareholders.

Before a related transaction is considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall determine the scope of the related shareholders in accordance with the relevant national laws and regulations. When a related transaction is considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the related shareholders or their proxies may attend the meeting and clarify their views to the shareholders present in accordance with the meeting procedures, but shall abstain from voting. When the matters related to related transactions is resolved at the shareholders' general meeting, the related shareholders shall abstain from voting. If the related shareholders do not abstain from voting, other shareholders attending the meeting shall have the right to request the related shareholders to abstain from voting. After the related shareholders abstains from voting, the other shareholders shall vote according to their voting rights and approve the corresponding resolutions in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association. The related shareholders' abstention and voting procedures shall be notified by the chairman of the shareholders' general meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The related shareholders' abstention and voting procedures in considering the related transactions are as follows:

(I) where any matter considered at the general meeting is related to a shareholder, such shareholder shall disclose the related relationship to the Board of Directors of the Company before the date of the general meeting;

(II) when considering the related transactions at the shareholders' general meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall announce and explain the related relationship between the related shareholders and the related transactions;

(III) the chairman of the meeting shall announce that the related shareholders shall abstain from voting, and the related transactions shall be voted by the non-related shareholders;

(IV) the resolution on a related transaction must be passed by a majority of the voting shares of the non-related shareholders present at the meeting; if the transaction falls within the scope of a special resolution, it should be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting shares of the non-related shareholders present at the meeting.

Article 81 Unless the Company is in a crisis or under any special circumstances, the Company will not enter into a contract with a person other than a director, general manager and other senior management member pursuant to which the management of the Company's entire or important business will be given to that person, unless otherwise approved by a special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 82 The list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be proposed by the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors to the shareholders' general meeting for voting by way of proposal. If the list of candidates for directors is proposed by shareholders by way of provisional proposal in accordance with Article 54 of the Articles of Association, the list shall be submitted to the Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors for approval and screening in terms of qualifications, resumes and other documents 10 working days before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting.

The cumulative voting system shall be adopted at the shareholders' general meeting for the election of directors and supervisors under any of the following circumstances:

(I) the Company elects two or more independent non-executive directors;

(II) the Company elects two or more directors or supervisors during the period when a single shareholder and the persons acting in concert with him/her are interested in 30% or more of the shares in the Company.

Where directors are elected through the cumulative voting system at the shareholders' general meeting, independent non-executive directors and non-independent directors shall vote separately, and the elected directors and supervisors shall be determined in accordance with the number of directors and supervisors to be elected and in the descending order of the number of votes obtained.

Where the cumulative voting system is not adopted for the election of directors and supervisors, each candidate for director or supervisor shall be nominated by way of a separate proposal.

The cumulative voting system as mentioned in the preceding paragraph means that when directors or supervisors are elected at the shareholders' general meeting, each share shall have the same number of voting rights as the number of directors or supervisors to be elected, and the voting rights held by shareholders may be used collectively. The Board of Directors shall announce the resumes and basic information of the candidates for directors and supervisors to the shareholders.

The Board shall formulate the implementation rules for cumulative voting and submit them to the shareholders' general meeting for approval.

The nomination methods and procedures for directors are as follows:

(I) The list of candidates for the members of the first session of the Board of Directors shall be proposed by the promoters of the Company and elected at the founding meeting of the Company; where the term of office of the Board of Directors is expired, the list of candidates for members of the next session of the Board of Directors shall be proposed by the Nomination Committee of the previous session of the Board of Directors and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting in the form of proposal for voting.

(II) Shareholders holding or collectively holding 3% or more of the total issued shares with voting rights in the Company have the right to put forward proposals on new director candidates in accordance with the Company Law and the Articles of Association of the Company.

The nomination methods and procedures for supervisors are as follows:

(I) where supervisors are shareholder representatives, the list of candidates for the members of the first session of the Board of Supervisors shall be proposed by the promoters of the Company and elected at the founding meeting of the Company; when the term of office of the Board of Supervisors is expired, the list of candidates for the members of the next session of the Board of Supervisors shall be proposed by the previous session of the Board of Supervisors and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting in the form of proposal for voting. Shareholders holding or jointly holding 3% or more of the total issued shares with voting rights in the Company shall have the right to put forward proposals on new supervisor candidates.

(II) where supervisors are employee representatives, the appointment and replacement shall be conducted through election at the Company's employee representative meeting or by other democratic electoral methods, and they directly take seats in the Board of Supervisors.

The Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall seek opinions from shareholders as much as possible when nominating directors and supervisors.

Article 83 Except for the cumulative voting system, all proposals will be voted separately at the shareholders' general meeting. If there are different proposals on the same matter, they will be voted in the order in which the proposals were submitted. Unless the general meeting is adjourned or no resolution is passed due to special reasons such as force majeure, the shareholders' general meeting will not set aside or refrain from voting on the proposals.

Article 84 When a proposal is considered at a shareholders' general meeting, no amendments shall be made thereto, otherwise, the relevant amendments thereto shall be regarded as a new proposal and cannot be voted at that shareholders' general meeting.

Article 85 The same voting right may only be exercised once at a shareholders' general meeting, either by on-site voting, online voting or other voting methods. In the event of repeated voting with the same voting right, the result of the first voting shall prevail.

Article 86 Voting at the shareholders' general meeting shall be carried out with open ballot.

Article 87 Before voting on a proposal at the shareholders' general meeting, two shareholder representatives shall be nominated to count and scrutinize the votes. Where the matters to be considered are related to shareholders, the relevant shareholders and their proxies are not allowed to participate in the counting or scrutinizing votes.

When voting on a proposal at a shareholders' general meeting, lawyers, shareholder representatives and supervisor representatives shall be jointly responsible for counting and scrutinizing the votes, and the voting results of the resolutions shall be announced on the spot and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Shareholders of the Company or their proxies who vote through online or other means have the right to check their voting results through the corresponding voting system.

Article 88 The on-site shareholders' general meeting shall not be concluded earlier than the online meeting or meeting held by other means. The chairman of the meeting shall announce the voting results of each proposal, and whether a proposal is passed according to the voting results.

Before the official announcement of the voting results, the Company, the persons responsible for counting and scrutinizing the votes, substantial shareholders, online services provider and other relevant parties involved in the on-site meeting, online meeting or that held by other means shall be under an obligation to keep the voting results strictly confidential.

Article 89 Shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on the proposals put forward for voting: for, against or abstain. Except where the securities registration and clearing institution, as the nominal holder of the shares under the Stock Connect mechanism between the mainland and Hong Kong stock markets, makes the declaration according to the intention of the actual holders.

Unfilled, incorrectly filled, illegible or uncast votes will be regarded as the voters having given up their voting rights and the voting results of the shares held by them shall be counted as "abstention".

Article 90 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the voting result of the resolution, the chairman may demand votes to be recounted. If the chairman of the meeting does not have the votes recounted, the shareholders attending the meeting or their proxies who have any objection to the voting result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall have the right to demand the votes to be recounted immediately after the announcement of the voting results, and the chairman of the meeting shall arrange for the votes to be recounted immediately.

Article 91 The resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner, and the announcement shall specify the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of shares with voting rights held by them and the proportion to the total number of shares with voting rights in the Company, the voting method, the voting result of each proposal and the details of the respective resolutions passed.

Article 92 If the proposal is not passed, or the shareholders' general meeting alters a resolution passed at the previous shareholders' general meeting, a special note shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 93 If the proposal on election of directors and supervisors is passed at the shareholders' general meeting, the newly appointed directors and supervisors shall take office from the date when the relevant resolution is passed at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 94 If the proposal in relation to the payment of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or capitalization of capital reserves is passed at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company will implement the specific plan within 2 months after the conclusion of the shareholders' general meeting. If the specific plan cannot be implemented within 2 months due to the requirements of the laws and regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the implementation date of the specific plan may be adjusted accordingly in accordance with such regulations and the actual situation.

Chapter 5 Board of Directors

Section 1 Directors

Article 95 Directors of the Company may include executive directors, non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors. Non-executive director refers to the director who does not hold any operational management position in the Company, and independent non-executive director refers to the person who complies with the requirements of Article 104 of the Articles of Association. Directors shall possess the qualifications required by laws, administrative regulations and rules. A director of the Company who is a natural person may not act as a director of the Company under any of the following circumstances:

(I) having no capacity for civil conducts or limited capacity for civil conducts;

(II) having been sentenced to imprisonment for corruption, bribery, embezzlement of property, misappropriation of property, or disruption of the socialist market economy, where less than 5 years have lapsed since the date of completion of such sentence, or who have been deprived of political rights as a result of any criminal offenses, where less than 5 years have lapsed since the expiration of the execution period;

(III) where he/she is a director, factory manager, or president of a company or enterprise that were declared insolvent and liquidated and was personally liable for the insolvency of the company or enterprise, and less than 3 years have lapsed since the date of the completion of the insolvency and liquidation of such company or enterprise;

(IV) where he/she is the legal representative of a company or enterprise whose business license was revoked or which was ordered to close down due to violation of the law and was personally liable for the company or enterprise, less than 3 years have lapsed since the date when the company or enterprise's business license was revoked;

(V) having a substantial amount of personal debts that are due and unsettled;

(VI) having been subject to a securities market ban imposed by the CSRC, which are prohibited from serving as a director, supervisor or senior management members of listed companies, with the term yet to be expired;

(VII) having been publicly determined by the stock exchange as unfit to serve as a director, supervisor or senior management member of listed companies, with the term yet to be expired;

(VIII) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, or departmental rules.

If any of the circumstances described in (I) to (VI) of the first paragraph in this Article occurs to a director of the Company during his/her term of office or an independent non-executive director fails to meet the requirements of independence during his/her term of office, the relevant director shall immediately cease to perform his/her duties and be removed from his/her position by the Company in accordance with the corresponding regulations. If any of the circumstances described in (VII) and (VIII) of the first paragraph in this Article occurs to a director of the Company during his/her term of office, the Company shall remove him/her from his/her position within 30 days from the date of the occurrence of such circumstance. Unless otherwise provided by the Stock Exchanges.

If the relevant Director shall be removed from office but is not removed, and he/she attends and votes at the meetings of the Board of Directors and its special committees, or the special meeting of independent non-executive directors, his/her vote shall be void.

Article 96 Directors shall be elected or replaced at the shareholders' general meeting and may be removed from office by the shareholders' general meeting before the expiration of their terms of office. The term of office of a director is 3 years. Upon expiry of the term of office he or she may be re-elected and re-appointed in accordance with the provisions of the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

The term of office of a director commenced from the date of taking office, until the current term of office of the Board of Directors ends. If a director is not re-elected in a timely manner upon the expiration of the term of office, the original director shall continue to perform his/her duties as a director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association until the re-elected director takes office.

A director may be concurrently held by the general manager or other senior management member, but the number of directors concurrently serving as general manager or other senior management member shall not exceed 1/2 of the total number of directors of the Company.

There is no employee representative director in the Board of Directors. The Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for the selection and appointment of directors.

Article 97 Directors shall abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall owe the following fiduciary obligations to the Company:

(I) shall not accept bribery or other illegal income by taking advantage of his/her power, or embezzle the assets of the Company;

(II) shall not misappropriate the Company's funds;

(III) shall not deposit the Company's assets or funds in accounts under his/her own name or the names of other individuals;

(IV) shall not, in violation of the provisions of the Articles of Association and without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting or the Board of Directors, lend the Company's funds to others or use the Company's properties to provide guarantee for others;

(V) shall not enter into contracts or conduct transactions with the Company in violation of the provisions of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting;

(VI) shall not, without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting, take advantage of his position to seek business opportunities that should otherwise belong to the Company for himself/herself or others, or to engage in the same kind of business as the Company for his/her own account or for the benefits of others;

(VII) shall not accept the commissions from transactions with the Company for his/her own account;

(VIII) shall not disclose the Company's secrets without authorization;

(IX) shall not take advantage of his/her related relationship to compromise the interests of the Company;

(X) shall fulfill other fiduciary obligations as required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

Any income derived by a director in violation of the provisions of this Article shall belong to the Company; and if any loss is caused to the Company, he/she shall be liable for compensation.

Article 98 Directors shall abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and owe the following duty of diligence to the Company:

(I) shall exercise the rights conferred by the Company in a prudent, conscientious and diligent manner, so as to ensure that the business activities of the Company comply with the requirements of national laws, administrative regulations and various national economic policies, and that the commercial activities do not go beyond the scope stipulated in the business license;

(II) shall treat all shareholders fairly;

(III) shall maintain a timely awareness of the operation and management of the Company;

(IV) shall sign written confirmations on the regular reports of the Company and ensure the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate and complete;

(V) shall truthfully provide relevant information and materials to the Board of Supervisors, and shall not obstruct the Board of Supervisors or the supervisors from performing their functions and powers;

(VI) shall discharge other duty of diligence as required by laws, administrative regulations, rules of departments, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 99 If a director fails to attend the board meetings in person or does not authorize other directors to attend the board meetings for two consecutive times, he/she shall be deemed to be unable to perform his/her duties and the Board of Directors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting to remove such director. Subject to compliance with the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, a director shall be deemed to have attended a board meeting in person if he/she attends the meeting by means of internet, video, telephone or other means with equivalent effect.

Article 100 A director may tender his/her resignation before the expiration of his/her term of office. A director who resigns shall submit a written resignation report to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will disclose the relevant information within 2 days.

If the number of the Board of Directors of the Company falls below the statutory minimum requirement due to the resignation of a director, or if there is no accounting professional among the independent non-executive directors due to the resignation of an independent non-executive director, the original director shall still fulfill his/her duties as director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association before a re-elected director takes office. A director's resignation shall not take effect until the vacancy arising from his/her resignation is filled by the re-elected director.

Except for the circumstances set out in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a director shall take effect when the resignation letter is served on the Board of Directors.

Article 101 If a director's resignation takes effect or his/her term of office expires, he/she shall complete all handover procedures with the Board of Directors. His/her fiduciary obligations to the Company and its shareholders shall not be automatically relieved upon the termination of his/her employment, or upon the expiration of his/her term of office or the effective date of his/her resignation. His/her obligation to keep the Company's business secrets confidential shall remain in effect after the termination of his/her employment until such secrets become public information. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require, depending on the length of time which has elapsed between the event concerned and the departure, as well as the circumstances and conditions under which the relationship with the Company is discharged.

Article 102 Unless provided for under the Articles of Association or legally authorized by the Board of Directors, no director shall act in his/her name on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors. When a director acts in his/her own name and the third party would reasonably believe that such director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors, such director shall declare his/her position and capacity in advance.

Article 103 Any director who violates laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in the performance of his/her duties and causes losses to the Company shall be liable for compensation.

Article 104 The terms of office, nomination and election procedures, duties and powers in relation to the independent non-executive directors shall be implemented in accordance with the relevant provisions of the law, the CSRC and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

Section 2 Board of Directors

2. The auditor issues a standard unqualified audit report on the annual financial report of the Company;

3. The Company has no material investment plans or significant cash expenditures (except for fundraising investment projects) within the next 12 months.

Material investment plans or significant cash expenditures refer to the total accumulative expenditures for external investment, acquisition of assets or purchase of equipment by the Company within the next 12 months reaching or exceeding 20% of the latest audited net assets of the Company, and exceeding RMB50 million.

(IV) Cash dividend payout ratio and time

Subject to the compliance of the profit distribution principles, the maintenance of the normal operation and the long-term development of the Company, where cash distribution conditions are met, the Company, in principle, makes the cash dividend payment once a year. The profits distributed by cash every year shall not be less than 10% of the distributable profit realized for that current year, and the Company's accumulative profit distributed in cash in any 3 consecutive years shall not be less than 30% of the distributable profits realized during such 3 years. Under certain conditions, the Company may distribute interim dividends according to its actual operating conditions.

(V) Conditions for distributing share dividends

Based on the status of accumulated distributable profits, common reserve fund and cash flow, the Company may distribute profits in the form of shares, provided that a sufficient amount of cash dividends and a reasonable size of share capital are guaranteed. The specific dividend payout ratio shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after being reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors.

If the Company proposes to distribute profits by a combination of cash and shares, the Board of Directors shall abide by the following principles:

1. Where the Company is in a mature stage of development and has no major capital expenditure arrangement, cash dividends shall account for at least 80% of all profits to be distributed by the Company in this round of profit distribution;
2. Where the Company is in a mature stage of development but has major capital expenditure arrangements, cash dividends shall account for at least 40% of all profits to be distributed by the Company in this round of profit distribution;
3. Where the Company is in the growing stage of development and has major capital expenditure arrangements, cash dividends shall account for at least 20% of all profits to be distributed by the Company in this round of profit distribution;
4. Where the Company has major capital expenditure arrangements, but its development stage is difficult to be distinguished, cash dividends shall account for at least 20% of all profits to be distributed by the Company in this round of profit distribution.

The proportion of cash dividends in this profit distribution is cash dividends divided by the sum of cash dividends and share dividends.

(VI) The ratios for cash dividend distribution and conversion of capital reserve into share capital shall be expressed in every 10 shares. The base number of share capital shall be the actual share capital prior to the implementation of the proposal.

(VII) Upon the occurrence of any illegal appropriation of the Company's funds by shareholders, the Company shall deduct the cash dividends allocated to such shareholders to make up for the funds appropriated by such shareholders.

(VIII) If the Company repurchases its shares in cash by way of an offer or centralized bidding method, it shall be regarded as cash dividends of the Company and shall be included in the calculation of the relevant percentage of cash dividends.

II. The profit distribution decision-making procedure and mechanism

(I) The management of the Company and the Board of Directors shall reasonably propose profit distribution recommendation and proposals according to the Company's profitability and capital requirement. In the course of the discussion of profit distribution proposal, the Board of Directors shall have sufficient discussion with independent non-executive directors and supervisors, listen to the opinions of minority shareholders through multiple channels and formulate the profit distribution proposal by taking into consideration the continuous, stable and scientific returns to all shareholders. Independent non-executive directors may collect opinions from minority shareholders, propose dividend proposals, and submit them directly to the Board of Directors for consideration.

When a profit distribution proposal is being considered by the Board of Director, it shall be approved by the majority of all directors and approved by more than one half of the independent non-executive directors who are also required to express their clear independent opinions. When it is being considered by the Board of Supervisors, it shall be approved by the majority of all supervisors. After being reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors, it can be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting of the Company for review and shall be approved by more than half of the voting rights held by shareholders attending the general meeting. When the Board of Directors is making the decision and formulating the dividend distribution proposal, it shall keep in details the recommendations of the management, the key points of speeches made by directors present in the meeting, the opinions of independent non-executive directors and voting results of the Board of Directors, etc., and form written records for proper documentation as the Company's files.

When the Company convenes an annual general meeting to consider the annual profit distribution proposal, it may consider and approve the conditions, maximum proportion and maximum amount of cash dividends for the interim period of the next year. The maximum amount of interim dividend for the next year considered at the annual general meeting shall not exceed the net profit attributable to shareholders of the listed company for the corresponding period. The Board of Directors shall formulate a specific interim dividend proposal in accordance with the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting, subject to the conditions of profit distribution.

(II) The Company shall effectively protect the public shareholders' rights to attend the shareholders' general meeting. When considering the cash dividend distribution proposal at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall proactively communicate and discuss with the shareholders, in particular, minority shareholders, through various channels, in order to fully receive opinions and requests of those minority shareholders and respond to their concerns in a timely manner.

(III) The Company shall strictly implement the cash dividend policy stipulated in the Articles of Association and the specific cash dividend proposal considered and approved at the shareholders' general meetings. If the profit distribution policy should be adjusted due to the production and operation conditions, investment plans and long-term development, or the changes in the external operation environment, the Company shall focus on the protection of shareholders' rights and interests and the adjusted profit distribution policy should not violate the relevant laws and regulations and provisions of regulatory documents and the Articles of Association. The adjustment proposal to dividend policy shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after being considered and approved by the board meeting, and approved by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting, thus facilitating the participation of minority shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting. Independent non-executive directors shall clearly express their independent opinions on the adjustments of or changes to the profit distribution policy, and the Board of Supervisors shall express their review opinions.

(IV) Where the Company profitable in a given year but the Board of Directors fails to propose to distribute profit in cash for such year, the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons and the purposes and usage plan of the funds not distributed by way of cash dividend in details in the annual report. The independent non-executive directors shall provide their independent views on the profit distribution plan and make disclosure.

Article 154 Reserves of the Company are used for offsetting losses of the Company, expanding the Company's production and operation or converting into and increasing the capital of the Company. However, capital reserve shall not be used to offset losses of the Company.

Upon conversion of the statutory reserve fund into capital, the balance of such reserve fund shall not fall below 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 155 After a resolution on the profit distribution plan is made at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company, or after a specific plan is formulated by the Board of Directors of the Company based on the conditions and cap for interim dividends for the next year considered and approved by the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within 2 months after the shareholders' general meeting is convened.

Article 156 The Company may distribute its profits in cash, shares or a combination of cash and shares or in other manners permitted by laws, and the distribution of profits shall not exceed the range of accumulated distributable profits and shall not impair the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The profits distributed by the Company in cash in a single accounting year shall not be less than 10% of the distributable profits realized in that year.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 157 The Company shall implement an internal audit system, and establish an internal audit department with full-time auditors to conduct internal audit and supervision on the Company's financial revenues and expenditures and economic activities.

Article 158 The internal audit system of the Company and the duties of auditors shall be implemented upon approval by the Board of Directors. The person in charge of auditing shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and report on his/her work.

Section 3 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 159 The Company shall engage an accounting firm that complies with the requirements of the Securities Law to perform audits of financial statements, verify net assets, and other related consulting services for a term of 1 year, which is renewable.

Article 160 The appointment of an accounting firm by the Company shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting, and the Board of Directors shall not appoint an accounting firm before the decision is made by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 161 The Company guarantees that it will provide the accounting firm with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting information, and shall not refuse, conceal or misrepresent them.

Article 162 The audit fee of an accounting firm shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 163 The Company shall give 15 days' prior notice to the accounting firm of the termination or non-renewal of its engagement, and the accounting firm shall be permitted to present its opinion when its termination is voted in the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

In the event that an accounting firm offers to resign, it shall explain to the shareholders' general meeting whether there are any impropriety existing in the Company.
